15. Exclusion of Personal Participation, Confidentiality

(1) The consultation and voting in the Examination Committee as well as an examination activity exclude the personal participation of anyone who is related to the candidate or maintains close economic relations with the candidate.

(2) The members of the examination board, the examiners, the assessors, and other persons concerned with examination matters are obliged to maintain confidentiality. Unless they are in the civil service, they must be obliged by the chairman to maintain confidentiality.