08. Form of Examinations

(1) Module or partial module examinations can be carried out in the written form as written examinations or other work such as presentations, seminar papers, and minutes (§ 10).

(2) Which examinations have to be performed in the individual modules is regulated in the respective module description.