18. Provision of the Exams in Line with the Curriculum

(1) According to the curriculum, the university ensures that examinations can be taken within the deadlines specified in these examination regulations and that the subjects are offered at the required level.