27. Entry into Force and Amendments

(1) These examination regulations come into force on 01.09.2018.

(2) Amendments that concern only the structure of the studies and the performance of the examinations may be decided by the Examination Board.

(3) All other changes require the approval of the Senate of the two participating universities.