

THEO 594 - Pentecostal Theology of Missions

Teacher	Dr. B. Waltrip
Semester	Fall	Duration	8 Weeks
Frequency	Every three years
Credits	5 ECTS	Workload	150 Hours
Module format	Intensive
Applicability	This course is intended to help the graduate student develop a personal theology of missions from a Pentecostal perspective.
Course structure	See module and courses
Contact time	40 Hours	Self-Study	110 Hours
Participation requirement	See access to the program
Evaluation	Evaluation	Hours	Weight
	Phase 1	TBA	40%
	Critiques of required reading	TBA	40%
	Phase 2	40	20%
	Participation	40	20%
	Phase 3	TBA	40%
	Research Paper	TBA	40%
	Total	150	100%

Content of the Module	This course will consider a theology of missions from a Pentecostal/Charismatic perspective. The course will specifically explore the missional understanding of the Trinitarian God and His Church. The role of the Holy Spirit in mission is a major feature of Pentecostal theology of mission. Therefore, the course will specifically address such topics as the role glossolalia/xenolalia, signs and wonders (power evangelism), spiritual gifts, and prophetic evangelism. Because Early Pentecostals had an eschatological urgency, the course will seek to develop a contemporary theology on the topic. Since mission happens in context, a theological understanding of culture from a Pentecostal perspective will also be explored. Finally, the course will consider a Pentecostal theology of missions and revival, which has missiological and eschatological implications.
Learning Objectives	A. General Learning Objectives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• This course seeks to:</li> <li>• construct a theological understanding of the missional nature of God, including a Pentecostal perspective of the Missio Dei</li> <li>• construct a theological understanding of the missional nature of the Church and Her apostolic role in the world</li> <li>• identify the contours of the Holy Spirit's role in the Missio Dei from a Pentecostal perspective</li> <li>• analyze theologically how Pentecostal/Charismatic eschatology relates to the Missio Dei</li> <li>• establish a Pentecostal/Charismatic theology of harvest and culture that considers the Church's missional role in context</li> <li>• analyze the theological connection between mission and revival</li> <li>• identify our place in history and the eschatological significance for revival and mission</li> </ul> B. Specific Learning Objectives As a result of the activities and study in this course, students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• define and defend theologically the missional nature of God and His Church from a Pentecostal/Charismatic perspective</li> <li>• defend the Missio Dei from Biblical perspectives from the Old and New Testaments</li> <li>• describe the role of the Holy Spirit in the Missio Dei from a Pentecostal perspective</li> <li>• recognize and defend the eschatological significance of mission for today's historical and cultural reality</li> <li>• articulate their theology of culture from a Pentecostal/Charismatic perspective and identify the implications for missional engagement</li> <li>• identify the missional implications of revival</li> <li>• defend our place in history from an eschatological and missional understanding</li> <li>• research and write your theology of mission</li> </ul>

Outline	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Missio Dei = what is it?</li> <li>• The Missional nature of the Trinitarian God</li> <li>• Christ, Harvest, and the Great Commission</li> <li>• The Missional Church</li> <li>• The Apostolic Church</li> <li>• Biblical perspectives of mission from the Old Testament</li> <li>• Biblical perspectives of mission from the New Testament</li> <li>• The Role of the Holy Spirit in Mission</li> <li>• Spiritual Gifts</li> <li>• Signs and Wonders in Mission (Power Evangelism)</li> <li>• The Role of the Prophetic in Mission</li> <li>• Theologies of culture and the implication for mission</li> <li>• Incarnational mission</li> <li>• Where the Harvest is today – global trends in missions</li> <li>• Pentecostal passion and urgency for mission due to eschatology</li> <li>• The Kingdom of God and Eschatology</li> <li>• Mission, revival and awakening – what is next?</li> </ul>
Examination	See Evaluation
Core Literature	Textbooks:  Ott, Craig, Stephen J. Strauss and Timothy Tennent.  Encountering Theology of Mission: Biblical Foundations, Historical Developments, and Contemporary Issues.  ISBN: 978-0-8010-2662-1  Baker Academic, 2010 Wright, Christopher J. H.  The Mission of God: Unlocking the Bible's Grand Narrative  ISBN-13: 978-0-8308-2571-4  InterVarsity Press, 2006
Other information

Revision #2

Created 23 May 2023 06:38:58 by Anneke Reinecker

Updated 23 May 2023 06:51:01 by Anneke Reinecker